This matter is before the court on defendant, Jorge R. Lopez's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [38]. The court has been advised that the co-defendant does not object to the continuance. For the reasons set forth in the motion, the undersigned magistrate judge finds that good cause exists for the requested continuance. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [38] is granted as follows:

1. The jury trial, as to all defendants, now set for February 28, 2023, is continued to May 4, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and May 4, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: February 13, 2023

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
